

Israel After Gaza and the New Anti-Semitism

A Public Conversation at Congregation Beth-El Zedeck

Yom Kippur Afternoon

Saturday, October 4, 2014, 3:30 p.m.

Kaufman-Schuchman Chapel

Panelists:

- Hannah K. Joseph, Of Counsel with Katz & Korin, P.C.
- Doug Rose, President, Irwin R. Rose & Co., Inc.
- David Sklar, Director of Government Affairs, Indianapolis JCRC
- Jeffrey H. Smulyan, Founder & Chairman of the Board, Emmis Communications Corp.

Moderator:

Dr. Pierre M. Atlas, Associate Professor of Political Science & Director of The Richard G. Lugar Franciscan Center for Global Studies at Marian University

Join us for an engaging conversation with a diverse group of Indianapolis leaders about the impact of the current situation in Israel and Gaza: How is this affecting our lives and our relationships as Jews in the larger community? How is this conflict related to the rise of anti-Semitism here and in Europe? Our panelists will share their concerns and visions for the future and will answer questions from the audience.
